HISTORY

The club first met on September 20, 1929 forming a sister study club to the Fine Arts Club. Meetings took place in the homes of the members, usually at night during the school year. The original leadership included President Mae Knapp, Vice President Dorothy Williams, Secretary/Treasurer Myrtle Morrill, and Historian Leslie Barnes. In 1960, Program Committees and Social Committees were formed to aid in club activities. Other positions were added intermittently.
